

EURO INCOME PORTFOLIO (€)

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE

This portfolio is focused on generating a steady income whilst maintaining the prospect of some capital growth. The portfolio will invest in a range of listed funds, or etfs, which in turn invest across a diversified range of equities, fixed interest, and cash. Whilst the portfolio will be broadly invested and focused on producing an income, you should be prepared to accept a significant degree of fluctuation in the value of your capital and the income produced.

COMMENTARY

- US growth remains firm, but there has been some loss of momentum elsewhere as the extended business cycle matures and policy support fades.
- Geopolitics is becoming a big driver of markets, which is concerning. We remain under the cloud of Trump’s tariff tirades which threaten a decade’s long process of free trade, globalisation and international cooperation.
- Central bank divergence continues with the US steadily raising rates. The Bank of England managed one rate rise, but that’s it for the year. Europe and Japan are still adding support.
- In equity markets, the US led the way with muted returns elsewhere and some positive horror shows in emerging markets. Government bond yields generally rose across the board and commercial property continued its steady year.
- By Quarter end, the Euro had strengthened a little v/s the major currencies. Gold remains weighed down by a strong $ whilst oil has been a beneficiary of OPEC production discipline and Trump’s forthcoming sanctions on Iranian exports.
- Rising equity markets saw strong performance from both Veritas & Fidelity Global Equity Income funds. Jupiter Absolute Return was down c1.7%; its long positions in value stocks and short position in the US tech glamour stocks, finding itself misplaced on both counts.
- We made no changes to portfolio construction or fund selection during the Quarter.

Investors should remember that past performance should not be seen as an indication of future performance and that the value of any investment and the income from it is not guaranteed as it can fall as well as rise. You may not get back the amount originally invested. Where an investment involves exposure to currency other than your base currency, changes in rates of exchange may cause the value of the investment to go up or down.
